Boyme Drops Vikings 19-6, Face East Jordan There Friday

Game Tighter Than Score Indicated

The Grayling Vikings travel to East Jordan tomorrow afternoon to take on a small scrappy eleven that last week held the great Raydars from Charlevoix to a 13-13 tie. East Jordan scored another touchdown that was called back on an offside penalty and outgained the vaunted Raydars 17 first downs to 13. In spite of this great showing, Viking mentor Bruce Smith said today that his charges would make a good showing against East Jordan and even hinted that lot of people might be surprised when the game ended.

Last Friday, a slow awakening Viking eleven spotted a huge Boyme City eleven two touchdowns in the first half and roared back after the half to outgain and outplay the visitors. The local team minus three of their veteran players, two linemen and one back, were outwardly nervous and tense when the game started. The first half found a really big Boyme team plowing over the Viking forward wall around the ends for big gains and two touchdowns. As the end of the second quarter neared, the Vikings took possession of the ball and really started to move through the big Boyme City forward wall. Left halfback Max Niederer on reverses and Bullet Bill Worden, the Viking all-conference fullback up the middle pilled up yardage as the half ended.

The local boys seemed to take heart as the second half started and outfought the heavyweight invaders but could not overcome their first half lead. Niederer scored a lone Grayling touchdown and a second threat was lost on an intercepted pass. Niederer bounced over for the score on a quick opening line play from about 3 yards out.

Niederer led the local ground gainers with 70 yards in 16 attempts with Worden adding 38 yards in 10 tries and End Bob Rasmussen 31 in 7 tries. Freshman backfield man Quane Worden made 22 yards in 6 tries and Quarterback Jack Trudeau added 6 yards in a single attempt with End Ernie Miller also totaling 6 yards on 2 attempts.

Shaler, Boyme City star rolled up 149 yards in 20 plays. Except for early game nervousness and two bad breaks, the Vikings showed a lot of good ball with Freshman Worden in the backfield and Warren Hatfield at center and Bruce LaChapelle at guard playing outstanding ball for first year men. They showed what teams may come for Grayling in the next few years.

Legion Auxiliary News

On Monday, October 3, the Legion Auxiliary, Unit 106, of Grayling held its first business meeting under the new schedule. Ten members and officers responded to roll call. Mrs. Betty Brown took her obligation at this time. The next meeting will be a social meeting on Monday, October 17. Guests will be invited. Mrs. Betty LaChapelle will act as committee chairman. 1950 dues are now due.

President Marie Quinn appointed the following chairmen: Legislative, Louise Babcock; national security, Amy Gethro; Americanism, Margaret Tinkler; community service, Margaret Snely; constitution and by laws, Bertha Windlow; child welfare, Margaret Balch; Pan American, Mary Jorgenson; poppy, Mable Martin; gold star, Lois King; publicity, Margaret Balch; girl state, Edith Long; flowers, Gloria Nielsen and Lillian Ryan; education of war orphans, Betty LaChapelle; rehabilitation, Virginia Selesky; auditing committee, Mable Martin, Edith Long, Marie Quinn, membership, Virginia Selesky and Margaret Balch.

Margaret Balch, Publicity Chairman.

A punt return and kickoff pattern play which netted two touchdowns against Pellston didn't seem to click at all against Boyme although it was used each time. Coach Smith explained that with one safety man catching the kick, he was instructed to hand it off to the other safety man reversing the movement of the ball in order that downfield blocking assignments could be set up.

The Viking blocking seemed to be at times extremely effective, but, the stopping of the big hard running Boyme backs left lots to be desired. Grayling defense play in getting through screen interference was excellent but after slashing end or tackle play brought the defense in for a shot at the ball carrier, he too many times rolled and spun his way on for several more yards.

Although Coach Smith hasn't too many experienced men by and large, the Vikings are giving a pretty good account of themselves in the Northern Class C Conference. Following the East Jordan encounter this week end, the Grayling Blue Devils will invade the Grayling field on Friday, October 21.

Tourist Council Figures Show Increased Vacation Travel

1949 Tops Last Year's Record

More vacationists are coming to Michigan this year than at any time in the state's history, according to Robert J. Furlong, Administrative Secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council.

"Every index available shows that tourists are visiting Michigan in greater numbers than during 1948 when the previous all-time high was reached," said Furlong. "Definite figures on the comparative dollar volume of this year's tourist business are not available. We are reasonably sure, however, that the increase in the number of visitors will offset the tendency toward more careful budgeting of vacation money by this year's tourists," continued Furlong. "Some vacation areas report slumps in their business, but to compensate for these are several regions which boast 'better than ever' seasons. The over all picture for the state seems to show a tourist business in 1949 equal to, perhaps even better than, the lucrative postwar years."

Furlong based his conclusions on reports and data from several sources. From eastern Michigan a survey of resort and restaurant operators showed that 32 per cent reported increases from 1 to 70 per cent in 1949, 34 per cent reported "about the same as last year" and 34 per cent reported decreases of from 1 to 55 per cent.

Archery Hunters Fined In Justice Court

Two deer hunters from Fort Wayne, Indiana, paid fines of $10 and costs of $6.35 each before Justice Larry Galehouse Monday. The pair were apprehended by Conservation Officer Clarence Roberts.

V-F-W Auxiliary will meet first Monday of every month, Grange Hall, 8 o'clock.

Tourist and resort operators in the Port Hope district say they are enjoying one of the best seasons in their history. The city of Marquette reported an increase of 25 percent in the number of visitors this year. Iron River, on busy U.S. 2 in the Upper Peninsula reports a 10 to 15 per cent increase in its tourist traffic. Elsewhere in the Upper Peninsula, tourist traffic and business was "good."

From the Michigan Department of Conservation comes the report that state parks attendance through September 17 was up 3.6 per cent over the record breaking figure of 1948 and that camp permits were up 10 per cent.

"Many factors must be considered in an attempt to analyze this year's tourist business," said Furlong. "First, we know that Labor Day no longer marks the end of our vacation season. Business has been generally good through September and we have every reason to believe that it will remain good through October and beyond, better than in previous years. Following the ever-popular deer season, winter sports come into their own. Michigan's winter sports program will be bigger and better than ever during the coming season."

Grayling Chamber Hangs In Balance

Letter By Board Tells Story

The existence of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce now hangs in the balance according to a letter sent to the membership this week by the Chambers Board of Directors. An open meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday evening, October 26 at the High School Auditorium at eight o'clock to make the final decision as to whether the group shall continue its work or cease to function.

The letter to membership pointed out the difficulties of sponsoring activities in the area when many citizens did not support the group either financially or with work on the projects. The letter concluded with a list of the accomplishments of the group during the past year.

Following is a full text of the letter to members of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce:

To all members,
Grayling Chamber of Commerce, Gentlemen:

"The first requisite of a good citizen of this republic of ours is that he shall be ready and willing to pull his weight."

The above statement made by Theodore Roosevelt is just as true today as it was the day he made it. It is also as true of a community as it is of a country.

During this year, and for a number of years past, it has been apparent that the number who are not able or willing to pull their share of the weight in Grayling has been growing. In fact, the non-pullers have far out-weighted those interested in progress in our community. The weight has become an unbearable burden to those left in the traces.

Your Chamber of Commerce because it is as much yours as anyone's has accomplished as big a job this past year as it

Dow Builds Gas Collecting Plant

L. J. Richards, chief engineer, the Dow Chemical Company, has announced construction of a three months project—a compressor station and pipeline to collect vented gas from the Beaver Creek oil field, five miles northwest of Higgins Lake and just south of Grayling.

Collected casinghead gas will be used as fuel and cracking stock for the next five to eight years to augment the present supply of gas at the Midland plant. The company's Ludington plant started operation September 1, for an estimated five-to-eight-year period, on gases similarly collected from the Pentwater, Michigan field.

A battery of 3-440 H. P. compressors will be used to boost the casinghead pressure from 5 p. s. i. to 500 p. s. i. and pump it to Midland. The new 56 miles of 8-inch welded steel line starting at the compressor station about five miles northwest of Higgins Lake runs south of Loomis. It then joins the old Dow line installed in 1939 and continues to Midland. The first gas will reach Dow furnaces shortly after the first of the year.

St. Mary's Church News

A group of about 250 members of the Grayling St. Mary's Parish and Roscommon St. Michael's Parish attended the Annual Picnic Sunday as guests of The Knights of Columbus Council of the Parishes. The picnic was held at the Higgins Lake State Park with ideal weather prevailing.

After an afternoon of races and sports events for the children, the group enjoyed a potluck picnic dinner. Coffee, soft drinks and ice cream were furnished by the K. C.'s.

The annual softball game between the men of the two parishes was won by Grayling when they pushed over four runs after dark in the last inning.

The committee wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. Buckholz park supervisors for their co-operation in arrangements.

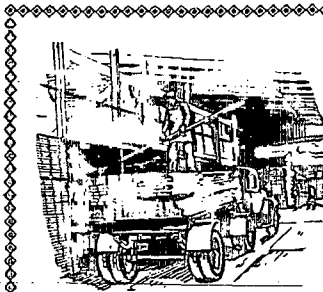

CARD OF THANKS—May we take this method of thanking our neighbors and friends for their expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. These expressions have been deeply appreciated.

When The Forests Burn

One match, one smoldering cigarette butt, one spark from a camp fire, can be the cause of the destruction of thousands of acres of timber that it took Nature centuries to create. And when the forests burn, the cruellest of deaths comes to the wildlife that live in their shelter.

This year, the country has witnessed a number of very serious forest fires. The hazard does not end with the summer months. There has been unusually dry weather in various sections of the country. Trees and woodlands will be ripe for destruction by fire for some time to come.

There seems to be a rather widespread idea that forest fires are started by natural causes beyond the ability of man to prevent or control. That is not true. As the New York Times has said, "Some fires, of course are set by lightning, but authorities are agreed that nine out of ten are due entirely to human carelessness with matches, cigarettes or camp fires. Annually they cause direct losses running into many millions of dollars and equally serious indirect losses in the destruction of our dwindling forest reserves."

The human factor, in fact, is responsible for almost all fires, whether they take place in a forest, in a home, or in a factory. Carelessness, ignorance, indifference to rudimentary precautions—these are fire's friends. When we replace them with care and watchfulness, fire will be beaten.

"Individuals, communities, and states must learn again to stand on their own feet if this country is to be saved from going socialistic." — Perry Brown, Commander, The American Legion.

Competitor Supports A. & P.

An independent grocer's paid advertisement condemning the anti-trust suit to dissolve The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea

Co., is being reprinted this week in A. & P. ads in more than 2,000 newspapers throughout the country.

The A. & P. competitor, C. Whit Blount of the Waynesboro (Ga.) Groceries, upholds the food chain, and voices opposition to the anti-trust charges in a message published by the Waynesboro True Citizen.

—Meanwhile, other competitors expressed support of A. & P. in newspaper advertisements in New York, Massachusetts and Louisiana.

Blount's three column ad admits that "The A. & P. Co., is definitely our strongest competitor," that its operations "hold the cost price down on foods," but in so doing "makes our suppliers hold their costs down to the same competitive level."

"Well, what's wrong with this?" Blount asks.

He adds, "we don't believe the government, or any individual should try to break up a firm that is doing a good, clean efficient job of serving the people of this country."

An editorial in the Atlanta Journal in praise of Blount's stand, also is being reprinted in this week's A. & P. advertisement.

The Journal remarks that "Blount states the economic and governmental aspects of the case against A. & P. with a clarity and forcefulness that most of the editorial comment has lacked. Also it strikes us as a fine example of sportsmanship in business."

In reprinting both the advertisement and editorial under the heading, "A. & P. Too, Takes Off Its Hat to Mr. C. Whit Blount," the chain also bows "to other competitors who have taken a similar stand."

She left the knife in him and dived through the window after her baby and fished it out of the briars and ran into the night with her husband's gang in full cry. Some how she evaded them and now she stood on the banks of the river and it was morning. There were houses around her and it was red in the east far over Lake Huron, and the shadows about her were fading. Her baby had stopped breathing. She held her hand over its mouth too long when they were coming the brush for her. Besides she had killed the man she had promised to obey, with the long knife. An o. overpowering sense of guilt came over her. She must be purified. Fire and water were the two great purifiers. The river ran cool and deep before her. You see her mind was still back a thousand years. "Oh, Shin-gaw-baw-awa Sin-ek-e gaw-baw-at" she prayed as she waked out on the logstranger. "Nin-wi-nigia." (Oh Great Spirit of the Rock, I come where you are. . . I will go to sleep.) Even as she jumped she heard the whiteman shout. "Hey, hey! you can't do that, come up to the house, my Missus'll fix you up."

Perfect Background for a Lady!

Sometimes, we think a lady never looks so lovely as when she's seated at the wheel of a Cadillac car.

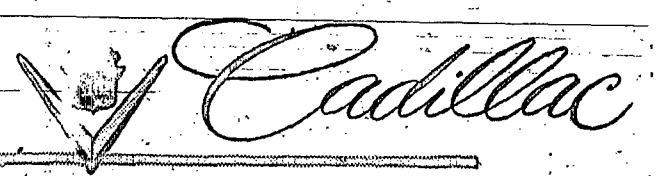

First of all—she looks serene . . . for she knows she is driving the world's most distinguished motor car.

She looks confident, too . . . for she knows she is driving a mechanical masterpiece—a car that is as dependable and safe as human ingenuity can make it.

She looks rested and at ease . . . for there is no strain at all to her driving. The big motor moves the car as if by automatic propulsion—steering is virtually a response to her wish—and the brake pedal calls for little more than the weight of a foot.

And, finally, she looks—as we said so lovely . . . for here is the perfect background for a lady. If she has chosen the model and the color and upholstery with care—as the fullest complement to her personality—she is the spot-lighted high-light in a gorgeous picture!

This message, of course, is addressed to a man—to a man with a lovely lady whom he delights to see at her best—and whom he wants surrounded, wherever she drives, with every safeguard an automobile can provide. Come in, Sir—and see us. You are looking for a Cadillac!

Competitor Denounces Suit Against A&P

THE BOLD three-column advertisement in the current issue of the Waynesboro True Citizen catches the reader's eye. We quote it in full.

To our notion that advertisement by C. Whit Blount states the economic and governmental aspects of the case against A&P with a clarity and forcefulness that most of the editorial comment has lacked.

Also it strikes us as a fine example of sportsmanship in business.

Incidentally, it is about as effective an advertisement as could have been written for Mr. Blount's "Groceteria".

Makes you sort of wish you were in Waynesboro to trade with him, doesn't it?

[An Advertisement From The
Waynesboro True Citizen]

A Word For Our Competitor The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

There has been a move by the anti-trust department of the Federal Government to destroy our leading competitor, the A&P Food Store.

It may seem odd, but we are opposed to this move.

The A&P Co., is definitely our strongest competitor - they keep us hopping. But, we are still in business - And Expanding. We do it by selling quality merchandise, buying at a close margin and selling at CLOSER margin.

The so called "trust-busters" charge that the A&P Co. control some of the production and processing ends of the food business. As a result, they hold the cost price down on foods.

WELL, WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS??

If A&P holds the costs down, it makes our suppliers hold their costs down to the same competitive level. They can sell cheaper, AND SO CAN WE.

We intend to continue to try to sell better merchandise than A&P; We also will continue to have competitive prices.

BUT, We don't believe the government, or any individual should try to break up a firm that is doing a good, clean, efficient job of serving the people of this country.

New Criminal Legislation

Editor's Note: This is the sixth in a series of articles on laws which were passed at the 1949 session of the Michigan Legislature. They affect you and every resident of Michigan. The entire series is prepared as a public service of the State Bar of Michigan under the direction of Russell A. Seal, Lansing, Chairman of the State Bar Committee on Legislation and Law Reform. The articles are objective in nature and do not attempt to comment on the relative worth of the legislative enactments but rather to present the most important facts and alert you to the changes these laws represent as they become effective September 23, 1949.

Habitual Criminal Act

The 1949 legislature adopted amendments which had been recommended for a number of years to the Michigan Habitual Criminal Act, or what was originally known as the Michigan Baumes Act. Under the act as first adopted in 1927, upon the conviction of a person for a second offense, the prosecutor was required by law to file information specifying the previous conviction and when it was determined that such a person had been twice convicted, the court was forced to impose a minimum sentence of not less than one-half of the longest sentence which the law provided for that of a first offender (maximum not more than one and one-half times the longest term).

Upon conviction of a person for a third offense the court was required to sentence him to a minimum sentence of not less than the longest term applicable to a first offender.

Notice is hereby given that on Thursday the 10th day of November, 1949, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at the front door of the Court House in the City of Grayling, that being the place for holding the circuit court for the County of Crawford, there will be offered for sale and sold to the highest bidder, at public auction or vendue, for the purpose of satisfying the amounts due and unpaid upon said mortgage, together with the legal costs and charges of sale, including an attorney fee of Seventy-five Dollars provided in said mortgage, the lands and premises in said mortgage mentioned and described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point 33 feet East and 90 feet North of the center of Sec. 5, T. 26 N. R. 2 W, thence East and parallel with the East and West 1/4 line of said Sec. 528 feet, then North on a line parallel with the North and South 1/4 line to the center of the Au-Sable River, thence Wily up stream to a point 33 feet East of the North and South 1/4 line, thence South on a line parallel with and 33 feet East of said North and South 1/4 line to the place of beginning, containing approximately 2 acres and being a part of the SW 1/4 of Sec. 5, T. 26 N. R. 2 W., Crawford County, Michigan. Dated, August 4, 1949.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the condition of a certain mortgage made the 4th day of November, 1948, by Robert Brooks and Mary Brooks, husband and wife, as mortgagors, to Grayling State Savings Bank of Grayling, Michigan, as mortgagee, and recorded on November 7, 1948, in the office of the register of deeds of Crawford County, Michigan, in Liber M. of mortgages, on page 384, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due and unpaid at the date of this notice One Thousand Nine Hundred Twenty ($1,920.00) Dollars principal and Seventy-five and 5/100 ($75.51) Dollars interest, and no suit at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt, or any part thereof, secured by said mortgage, and the power of sale in said mortgage having become operative by reason of such default.

offender (maximum not more than twice such longest term). Upon conviction of a fourth offense, the life sentence was to be imposed.

Because of the harshness of the mandatory features of such law, particularly the mandatory minimum sentence portion of it, both judges and prosecutors in many instances failed to invoke its provisions. They took the position in many instances that the circumstances of the offense or the man's record did not warrant such heavy sentences. As a result many of the inmates of our state penal institutions who have been sentenced under this act found among their fellow prisoners many others who had been convicted of the same or graver offenses and, in some instances, these fellow prisoners had been convicted of a greater number of offenses, yet were under lighter sentences. The inmates naturally felt discriminated against.

The correction authorities were among the first to recommend some change in this law as this situation necessarily had a prejudicial effect upon the morale of the institution. The law has been the subject of study by committees of the State Bar of Michigan and other groups and the final solution as enacted by the last legislature was to place the decision of whether information regarding past convictions should be filed within the discretion of the prosecuting attorney, and, in cases where it was filed, to remove the requirement for the mandatory minimum sentence and to make the length of the maximum sentence discretionary with the trial judge.

This places within the power of the prosecuting officials and the court the right to use the statute where the circumstances of the offense and the record of the offender warrant imposing a longer sentence. It is expected that this amendment will result in more widespread use of the statute. It should also have a good effect upon the morale of inmates of state prisons.

Rehabilitation Camps

Another act which is calculated to contribute to the rehabilitation of inmates of state penal institutions is one which authorizes the state corrections department and the conservation department to construct camps upon state owned land within conservation areas for the purpose of housing inmates who work on conservation projects. This measure was originally recommended in 1947 by a senate committee which made a widespread investigation of the operation of the correction laws and which recommended the establishment of such camps as a place where inmates could serve the last few months of their sentences. It was felt that this opportunity to serve in a camp outside of prison walls would serve as a buffer between the rigors of institutional life and the freedom of release upon parole and would be of assistance to the inmate in making his adjustment after his release on parole. It is also hoped that it will serve as a means of weeding out those inmates who could not safely be permitted their freedom outside of the institution.

Miscellaneous Penalty Laws Most of the bills defining offenses and imposing penal penalties were of a rather minor nature. These included the so-called "Kathy Fiscus" Bill which imposed criminal penalties for failure to safely cover or fence any well or cistern of the depth of four feet or more and with a top width of "eleven inches or more."

By another bill, the throwing of glass on a beach or waters adjacent thereto, or upon any highway or walk or public property within fifty feet of a public highway, was made a misdemeanor. The penalties of a previous law prohibiting placing of garbage and rubbish upon a public highway were increased.

Setting Fires The law prohibiting the setting of open fires was also amended in minor details. In addition to the penalty provisions, the state was given the right to recover all expenses incurred by the state in the putting out of a fire from any person who started a forest or grass fire, or negligently allowed a fire to escape and become a forest or grass fire.

Fireworks The previous statute prohibiting the use of fireworks and explosives was amended to permit the use of sparklers containing not more than .0125 pounds of burning portions per sparkler. Previous provisions for supervised public fireworks displays were continued unchanged.

Medical Examinations The statute prohibiting employers from competing newly hired or former employees reporting back to work to pay the cost of medical examination or for being photographed and finger-printed was amplified to apply to all employers in the state.

Conspiring to Commit Another statute makes it a felony to conspire with others to commit a person to an institution for mental incompetents without just and reasonable grounds therefor.

(The next article in the series will treat legislation pertaining to schools.)

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

But Curly "Knows
What The Score Is!"

Was over at Doc Sherman's drug store listening to the World Series on the radio. Curly Lawson wanders in and says: "How about a chocolate malted, Doc?"

"Sorry, Curly," says Doc, "can't make you a malted for a while yet." "What's the idea?" Curly asks. "Well," says Doc, "most of the folks want to hear the game and the mixer makes too much noise." Curly thinks a moment and says, "Okay with me, Doc—I'll take a chocolate soda!"

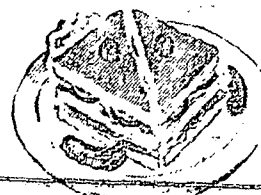

This shows how tolerant folks can be. Doc showed his respect for how the majority felt; Curly was big enough not to insist on his malted even though he didn't happen to be fond of baseball.

From where I sit, willingness to respect the other people's feelings is important in a Democracy. If we're tolerant of a person's like for baseball or a glass of temperate beer, we've come a long way on the right road... the road to a better America, that is!

Customers' Corner

Who wants to put
A&P out of business?

Not our customers. Many thousands of them are writing and phoning us and telling our clerks and managers that they want to continue to enjoy quality A&P foods at low A&P prices.

Not our suppliers. Farmers and manufacturers alike are telling us that they want to protect this efficient outlet for their products.

Not our 110,000 employees. They want to keep the high wages, good working conditions and security they enjoy with A&P.

Not labor. Union leaders are wiring us to ask what they can do to defeat this threat to labor's living standards.

All these people are telling us they don't want the anti-trust lawyers to put A&P out of business.
